Convenor’s Report – Dianne McGrath/Jacqueline Birt

Dianne and Jacqueline spoke to the report as tabled. A special thanks was forwarded to Marie Cavanagh and Reg Mathews for the part they played in the successful running of the Symposium.
4 Treasurer’s Report – Dianne McGrath in Lynne Leveson’s absence

Financial reports tabled.

5 2004 Symposium

It was agreed that the Symposium will run again next year. It was suggested that a joint session with the Accounting Standard group be explored.

The Symposium is seen a stimulus for teaching and learning as often little or no opportunity is offered as part of the main conference.

Suggestions for next year:
- Theme: Innovative Learning
- Panel session with well researched/published people; eg Russell Craig, Paul de Lange, Bev Jackling, Marie Cavanagh.
- Bev suggested innovations in education – eg, panel of ‘experts’ from technology.
- Jenny suggested trying to get an international speaker on accounting education for one of the CPE sessions (main conference).
- Possibly run some workshop presentations – 10 minutes each with a review by a more experienced person.
- Agenda for symposium needs to be posted to the Web.

7 Election of Office Bearers for 2002/2003

Dianne McGrath and Robyn Pilcher both indicated they would not be standing for their respective positions again this year due to PhD commitments. Thank you to both of them for their work over the past few years.

The following people were nominated for the other joint convenor position: Marie Cavanagh, Paul Wells, Beverley Jackling, Jacqueline Birt. The successful applicants were:
